FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

I would classify 2016 as a year filled with hard work punctuated by a philosophy shift, and some significant “firsts” at the Mary S. Roberts Pet Adoption Center. Staff and volunteers worked together to further our mission of providing humane care for pets in transition, facilitating adoptions to good homes, supporting pet overpopulation and education. And thanks to generous donors, grant makers, and other friends, we continue to make a significant difference in the lives of thousands of cats, dogs, puppies and kittens through the remarkable power of the human-animal bond.

In this issue of our annual report, you will see some of the highlights of the past year. Those of us on the front lines will hold close to our hearts a record year of adoptions, a huge number of adults and children positively affected by our humane education programs, a strengthening of our relationship with Riverside County Department of Animal Services which included more transfers than ever before.

I am tremendously encouraged by the faith given to us communicated by our donors and other supporters. All efforts, large and small make a difference in the lives of orphaned pets in our community and beyond. I wish everyone who makes our work possible could experience the joy of a family taking home an adopted pet, the sweetness of child ready to one of our cats or the antics of new puppies in our training classes.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, our amazing staff, dedicated volunteers, and all of our four-legged friends we give you our deepest gratitude. They sustain us and push us forward. We thank them, and you, for all of the successes of 2016, and to those that lie ahead.

For the animals,

Carrie Ridgway
Executive Director
